1. The deputy chief of the Soviet "Zentrale" at Karlshorst (described as an information bureau) returned from Moscow on 25 May with plans for a campaign against ratification of the contractual agreement by West Germany. The plans include a total blockade of the zonal demarcation line. They also call for a rail and air blockade of West Berlin, to take effect in the immediate future.
2. It is stated that Moscow believes an air-lift would not be possible on this occasion because of the shortage of gasoline.
